

KLCBT elects new management committee

Ms Nomkhosi Dlamini of KLT and Mr Nhlanhla Themba of SANParks.

Thelma Nel

MBOMBELA - At the recent annual general meeting last week, the Kruger Lowveld Chamber of Business and Tourism (KLCBT) members elected the management committee, which will take over the reins for the next term of two years.

This time they voted for one representative for each of 10 categories, though all other nominees will also serve as additional members.

KLCBT chief executive officer, Ms Linda Grimbeek explains, "The increasing demand on the chamber to play a bigger advocacy role, requires more people to assist. For this reason we will gladly take all those who are willing to serve, on board for the next term."

At the first meeting, this new representative committee will elect a chairman and two vice-chairmen who will automatically sit on the KLCBT board, with the chair and two vice-chairs of the regional tourism committee. Eight additional, non-executive board members as well as the immediate past president, will comprise the rest of the board.

The new KLCBT committee per category:

- Accounting and financial services: Mr Phakama Maimela
- Legal: Mr Arnoldt Cilliers
- Professional and educational: Mr Gerhard Landman
- Property: Mr Sakkie van Rooyen
- Wholesale and retail: Ms Cornelia Zoomers
- Civil society: Mr TJ Maré
- Mining and manufacturing: Ms Shirley Mnisi
- Services sector: Mr Cobus Tomlinson
- Agriculture and food processing: Mr Carel van Wyk
- Large corporates: Ms Pearl Pretorius
- Additional members:
Mr Michael Brooks
Ms Jennifer le Roux
Ms Reitha Pelzer
Mr Theunis Steyn
Ms Lindiwe Sibande.

Mr Johny Rainders of Pilgrim's Rest and Ms Linda Grimbeek of KLCBT.

Mr Sizile Ndlovu of Bushbuckridge Tourism and Mr Elliot Phiri of Foundation of Business Consumer Services.

Ms Zelda Koegelenberg of KLT, Ms Pearl Pretorius of Naspoti Security Solutions, Mr Jonathan Hatting of KLCBT and Ms Sonja Berg of GIZ.

Ms Margaret Raubenheimer of A2A Kapono with Ms Emily Bezuidenhout and Ms Sandra Jacobs of Innibos and also board member of KLCBT.