No fear of electricity and water shut down for Mbombela this December

From our point of view there is no cause for concern at this point in time. Firstly, some of the facts published need clarification:

Mbombela was not notified of the intended water cuts and we find it appalling that these notifications happens in the media rather than through official channels. It really does not display good faith.

Mbombela's management have been in contact with the Minister as well as the Provincial Dept of Water Affairs to arrive at a suitable arrangement. It will be very difficult to enforce a cut-off since the supply of essential services like water, is protected by law.

We welcome this dialogue so things can be sorted out in a proper and professional way, rather than to create panic with ratepayers.

We have further confirmation that the Eskom accounts will be settled in full on 1 December—no cause for concern about any cut off.

There is no need for panic, we need to be patient, but cautious at the same time and allow the management of Mbombela to sort out the financial problems they inherited.

We call upon the citizens of Mbombela to pay their accounts on time, especially during the festive season. Let us all help in this way to assist Mbombela to solve these problems. KLCBT will keep members informed with correct and verified facts and intervene or support where necessary.

KLCBT's website hosts the most comprehensive events calendar for the Lowveld.

We add events at no cost on our website and this includes Christmas lunch specials and New Year's parties.

Please send us your advertisements or menus to add to the website.

It is a great tool for people to go to one place to help them to decide where to celebrate Christmas and the New Year. No need to open a bunch of e-mails.

To bump up your advertising, you can book a mail shot with KLCBT which is e-mailed to all our 1000 members. This will cost you only R300 per mail shot, but will certainly give you an advantage over the other restaurants as these go directly to all the business people and guest house owners.
