INVITATION

GASTRONOMY TOURISM FRAMEWORK PROVINCIAL CONSULTATION SESSIONS

Dear Valued Stakeholder:

The development of the Gastronomy Tourism Framework (GTF) is an initiative of the Department of Tourism aimed at establishing a national framework that will result in the promotion and development of tourism gastronomy experiences across South Africa in order to showcase the country's history, heritage, cultures and geographic and agricultural diversity through tourism with a specific emphasis on sustainable tourism ensuring the inclusion of communities and focusing on poverty alleviation, women and youth empowerment.

The Department is excited to share this work with public and private sector stakeholders in a series of half-day workshops and solicit feedback on the Gastronomy Framework in order to solicit inputs to develop an implementation plan to support the development of gastronomy tourism in South Africa.

Kindly receive an invitation to engage the Department on the work covered to date and provide your insight which will be finalized thereafter. Space is limited so please RSVP ASAP. The event will take place as follows:

Date : 03 August 2023
